Atsushi Kaga

Japan-born artist Atsushi Kaga's main characters are a bunny, and a bear crippled in a car accident. They smoke, drink, drug it up and talk about sex, but throughout it all, they watch out for each other. Thus, rather than being cloying or overly kawaii, Kaga's characters are endearing and—in spite of the fact that they're talking animals—probably a lot like people you know.
