

THURSDAY 25.09.14

ART

Kevin Cosgrove

Mother's Tankstation, Watling Street, Dublin. Thurs-Sat 12noon-6pm. Until Nov 1
Motherstanksstation.com

The third solo show by an exceptionally gifted young painter, Remake takes its title from one of the pictures it features: a view of a vintage Austin A35 in a workshop. Cosgrove is drawn to workshops, spaces where things are made, repaired, restored. He conveys their cluttered, comfortable order with cool, offhand virtuosity. They are also metaphors for the artistic process.

A painstaking worker, his output is sparse, so make the most of this chance to see a group of pieces. AD