

SEARCH BEACH

150

Noel McKenna
mother's tankstation (Nova)

C

"I am reliably informed that Noel McKenna is considered to be a 'national treasure' in his native Australia. His small-scale, self-consciously modest paintings—of vernacular subjects—collide an introspective worldview with an uncanny form of universal (visual) poetry: creating in turn an aesthetic, emotional, and psychological tension in the work that is hard to fully articulate or even describe."

CURATORS' CHOICES

Art | Basel | Year 46