

Atsushi Kaga The Legend Portraits

Polar Bear

He lives in the North Pole.

He has ecological concerns, he particularly hates global warming.

He loves drinking whisky on the rocks (ice from the North Pole – see above) which he occasionally shares with Alex (see Alex).

He hates penguins (the way they walk).

He loves fishing.

He likes classical music (particularly Bach Cantatas more than fugues).

He loves Cuban cigars, although they are hard to store past 71° North.

He doesn't like sarcasm but enjoys irony and appreciates subtlety (evidently).
