

Atsushi Kaga The Legend Portraits

The last cat pirate in the ocean

He is a he, a true alpha-male (in cat terms).

A real fighter.

He is beyond emotions, and doesn't get moved by anything or anyone, anymore.

But he still reserves a very small spot in his heart for Jennifer Aniston.

He walks his own path.

He has his own reality and rules.

Nobody get's in his way, nothing stops him.

He lost his left eye in a battle with the second-last cat pirate on the ocean.

While his true vocation is piracy, he works part-time in a shop selling artificial legs.
